

California's

LOW CARBON FUEL STANDARD (LCFS) PROGRAM

How it Works

Owners of electric transportation infrastructure are eligible for California's Low Carbon Fuel Standard program.

Petroleum fuel importers, refiners, and wholesalers in California are required to reduce carbon intensity.

The California Air Resources Board (CARB) is California's governing air quality control body.